

Driver Safety

Driver Evaluation

If you would like to find a professional who can evaluate your or a family member's driving, The American Occupational Therapy Association, Inc., has a website to help you locate a "Driver Specialist" near you. Their website is located at: <https://www.aota.org/older-driver>

Driver Improvement Course

If you would like to increase your confidence and awareness behind the wheel, consider taking AAA's Roadwise Driver Refresher Course. For information, go to: <https://exchange.aaa.com/safety/senior-driver-safety-mobility/aaa-roadwise-driver/>. Automobile insurance discounts also may apply upon course completion.

Hartford Center for Mature Market Excellence

Their website includes the following car-safety guidebooks that can be ordered or downloaded for FREE:

- Your Road Ahead - A Guide to Comprehensive Driving Evaluations
This guidebook describes the benefits of having a comprehensive driving evaluation from an occupational therapist with specialized driver evaluation training.

- At the Crossroads - Family Conversations About Alzheimer's Disease, Dementia & Driving
This guidebook helps families determine when it's time for loved ones with dementia to stop driving and helps them cope with driving cessation.

- We Need to Talk - Family Conversations with Older Drivers
This guidebook gives families easy-to-use, practical information to help them plan ahead and initiate productive and caring conversations with older adults about driving safely.
